

I don't want the banks to be allowed to telemarket to former customers. I know where they are if I want to do business. My phone is for my convenience, not theirs. If they want to call and bother me then they should pay me for my time. I HATE telemarketers, they are an invasion in my private time.